DEAR FRIENDS
OF NER YAAKOV

*„But you, O Israel, my servant,
Jacob, whom I have chosen..“*

Jerusalem, Summer 2010

We received so much encouragement over the past few months and we are so grateful for that. Today I would like to share that with you, our dear Ner Yaakov friends, supporters and prayer partners. In our last newsletter I wrote about: “Changes”! I am very thankful to introduce a new project at the Ner Yaakov-home and “Center for Holocaust survivors” to you. Of course, like before, we help the sick and poor and needy survivors in very practical ways, but we also started a new “Holocaust-survivor-guest program.” I will share about it in this newsletter. Also many visitors from abroad came, even a big group of young Brazilian Jewish people, to meet the survivors at Ner Yaakov and hear their stories. Truly, today we have to be very thankful for these opportunities, to still have these last living witnesses among us, willing to open their hearts and share their painful testimonies. Here are a few words of one of our visitors, Sylvia Eisen: “This home has such a comfortable, “homey” atmosphere, - just blessed. May God keep this place as a place for visitors, as a true connection-place between the “nations of the world” and Israel! We were very blessed there and our problems seemed suddenly so small when we heard the stories of the people you are taking care of. Encounters and meetings happen here that we won't forget for the rest of our lives.”

we also thank you! Without you much on my heart for the

We at Ner Yaakov really thank God for all these blessings, and we could not do our work here! The scripture which is very survivors, for Israel in these difficult days and also for you is: “Do not fear; for I am with you!” Shalom, yours Inge Buhs
